408. Resolution from Mr. E. Ramaswamy Iyer, Municipal Councillor:—

"1 (a) The area known as Weavers' lines, was at one time called Krishnamurthipuram. The Municipal School in this area had a name board called Krishnamurthipuram Boys' School. Though the name was formally changed, no public records bear the changed name of this locality but still it is being called as 'Weavers Lines.' I therefore propose that the naming of this extension Krishnamurthipura may be revived and mentioned in all correspondences, the fact being also communicated to the postal authorities.

Resolution.—Moved by Mr. S. Krishnaswamy Rao.
Seconded by Mr. P. S. Ramaswamiengar.

Passed.

(b) All the streets and lanes should be named in some way or other for the easy identification of houses. For this purpose a sub-committee may be formed for every Mohalla with the Mohalla Councillors as members and co-opeted with experienced private gentlemen selected from the different parts of the Mohalla.

Resolution.—The roads may be named numerically such as main road or cross road No. 1, 2 and so on, and this work of naming numerically and fixing signboards be taken up at once.
